PRESS RELEASE

White Lodging Promotes Cory Chambers to Vice President of Revenue Generation, Full-Service

This is a brand new position for the company

Merrillville, IN. (May 22, 2013): White Lodging is pleased to announce Cory Chambers has been promoted to vice president of revenue generation for the company's full-service portfolio. This new role will oversee sales, revenue management, eCommerce and communications channels.

"It is my privilege to be a part of White Lodging's continued growth," said Chambers. "We have an amazing and committed team who is poised to move the organization in an exciting direction."

Previously, Chambers was the corporate director of sales at White Lodging for the full-service division where he oversaw sales and marketing for 17 hotels in Austin, Texas, Denver, Colo., Louisville, Ky. and Indianapolis, Ind. Prior to his corporate role with White Lodging, Chambers was named Western Region Sales Leader of the Year in 2010 at the JW Marriott Indianapolis and led the hotel's sales team to a successful opening in 2011. Chambers began with White Lodging in 2007 after several years of experience with Marriott and Westin including sales leadership roles at the New Orleans Marriott, Boston Marriott Quincy and the Westin in Waltham, Mass.

"Cory brings with him a track record of success and we look forward to him continuing to drive profitable market share gains throughout the organization," said Dave Sibley, President and CEO Hotel Management Services.
