Wallingford, CT – July 30, 2013 – White Lodging Services is pleased to announce the Homewood Suites by Hilton Wallingford-Meriden, located at 90 Miles Drive in Wallingford, Connecticut, completed a major renovation on April 1.

“This renovation demonstrates our commitment to providing guests with the highest quality accommodations they have come to expect from staying at the Homewood Suites Wallingford-Meriden,” said, Deborah Johnson, general manager.

As part of the renovation, improvements were made to the public areas including new wall coverings, carpeting, mattresses and furnishing throughout the hotel. The renovation also included a renovated “Lodge” area with a community table and a more contemporary look.

The four-story, 104 suites, Homewood Suites Wallingford-Meriden is near local attractions including Quinnipiac University, Choate Rosemary Hall and Yale University.

Homewood Suites by Hilton Wallingford-Meriden offers roomy studio and one and two-bedroom suites, with additional guest amenities including a daily complimentary full hot breakfast in the hotel's hospitality center – the “Lodge” – a full evening meal with drinks Monday-Thursday, and a 24-hour on-site pantry. The hotel also offers complimentary Wi-Fi, fully-equipped fitness center, indoor heated pool and spa and 24-hour executive business center.

“We are delighted to share our new look with our guests, friends and neighbors,” Johnson said. “The entire hotel looks more light and fresh. We love giving tours and watching people react as they see the new room design and the beautiful lodge. It is exciting to be a part of the team that made this all happen and now get to share the end result with our guests.”
