Merrillville, IN. (May 9, 2013): White Lodging and REI Real Estate Services, Inc. are pleased to announce they have begun construction on a 172-room Hyatt Place hotel in downtown Bloomington, slated to open in July 2014.

“We are pleased to continue to build upon a strong relationship with the City of Bloomington by building another superior project downtown,” said Michael Wells, president of REI Real Estate. “This development will allow hundreds of thousands of visitors to this great city to be right in the heart of vibrant downtown, frequenting commercial offerings and its convention center all within a few blocks.”

The hotel will be located one block from the Bloomington Convention Center and is an easy walking distance to the campus of Indiana University.
