PRESS RELEASE

White Lodging Services Awarded Food & Beverage Excellence Award and Strategic Partnership Award by Marriott International

Two top honors recognize outstanding achievements across company

Merrillville, Ind. (Nov. 21, 2012): At Marriott International's annual North America Owner's meeting, White Lodging Services was awarded the Food & Beverage Excellence Award and the Strategic Partnership Award.

"White Lodging's management team from top to bottom is the strongest it has ever been in my 27 years. We are aligned to our vision and mission and we are energized by our growth," said Bruce White, chairman and CEO at White Lodging.

The first morning of the conference, White Lodging was awarded the Food & Beverage Excellence Award. To receive this award, hotels are judged in the following areas: measurable improvement in overall dining, outstanding achievement in culinary excellence, creativity and innovation and training and development of others leadership and personal development.

During the conference, Marriott also announced the biggest recognition that they bestow on a few select companies each year, the Strategic Partnership Award. This award is given to companies that core values align with Marriott's, believe in guest service, participate in committees to make the brand stronger and continue to build and grow the Marriott brands. White Lodging is proud to announce that the company also took home this recognition.
